

AIA Hong Kong

A Chapter of The American Institute of Architects

International Associate Member

The International Associate category of membership is intended for individuals who have a license to practice architecture or the equivalent from a non-U.S. licensing authority. International Associate members may indicate that they are International Associates of the American Institute of Architects, subject to the AIA bylaws, and may use the title “International Associate, AIA” but not “AIA International Associate” or the initials “AIA” alone as a suffix to their name. International Associate members may wear the silver AIA pin, but not the gold AIA pin or the emblem. Individuals meeting the following criteria are eligible for the International Associate category of membership:

- Holder of an architectural license or the equivalent from a non-U.S. licensing authority and demonstrate honourable standing in the profession in the locale in which they are licensed. Such persons may be resident within or outside the U.S.¹

International Associate members, subject to the items noted herein, enjoy the same rights and privileges as Architect and Associate members. International Associate members are required to join both AIA National and the AIA Hong Kong (component chapter). The cost of Associate AIA membership is US$308.00 per annum. Membership dues are pro-rated quarterly.

International Associate members:

- May not hold more than two seats or one-third of the total seats, whichever number is greater, on section or chapter boards.
- May not vote on dues for Architect members.
- May not constitute more than one-third of any component delegation to state, regional and national conventions.
- Shall not be eligible to serve as a national officer, regional director, component officer, or on the National Judicial Council.

Benefits of Membership:

- Use suffix “International Associate AIA” which carries worldwide recognition by the profession.
- Attend interesting guided building tours, seminars and quarterly meetings featuring guest speakers.
- Networking - opportunities to meet informally with local architects or other professionals and gain insight about the current issues affecting the industry.
- Listing in the AIA Hong Kong Members Directory and AIA Hong Kong web site.
