CHAPTER NEWS

2010/11 Chapter President, Exco, Committee Nominations & overall Chapter Updates

Incoming 2010/11 AIA Hong Kong Chapter President, J Lee Rofkind, AIA, will formally take office at the 3rd Quarterly Meeting currently scheduled for Thursday, 19 August 2010. Members are encouraged to come 'meet and greet' J Lee and find out about chapter plans for the year ahead. At the same time incoming Vice President Bernard Chang, AIA will be introduced and 2010/11 Chapter Officers and Committee Chairs will all be announced. All members are strongly encouraged to participate in chapter committees or offices. Good member participation is crucial to the AIA Hong Kong Chapter's success. If you would like to nominate someone for one of committee chairs or join one of the committees, please contact the office or respective committee chair by telephone or email. All member participation is welcome!! \(click here for nomination form\)

Further to welcoming J Lee, The Chapter has asked current 2009 & 2010 President, Dr. Christine E. Bruckner, AIA to continue with sustainable and Asia Pacific regional outreach initiatives currently underway and to take on a new leadership/ advisory role, details to be announced at Q3 gathering.

AIA Hong Kong Chapter staff changes are underway as well: We are saying farewell to administrative officer Carmen Chan, who has worked with the chapter for 4 years (and is leaving for personal reasons). The Chapter will be recognizing administrator Helen Yick as the primary point of contact for Chapter inquiries. Finally, we welcome Ravi Govada who joined AIA Hong Kong, July 5th and will assist in supporting and furthering awareness of AIA Hong Kong through new media and beyond. Please keep your eye out for Ravi at our upcoming events and introduce yourself to him and to all...
